

14th Annual Festival of the Nations August 24th, 2019

Established in 2006 as a celebration of the diverse culture at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Festival of the Nations has now turned into a community-wide, multi-cultural event. Visitors are welcome to explore the richness in food and traditions of each country, unique beverages, music, art and crafts. Each participating country is encouraged to have their country's decorations according to the natural and artistic beauty of their customs.

Festival of the Nations

The 2018 event had over 15 countries represented in the food tasting and entertainment. Countries in the past have included: Bolivia, China, Columbia, Congo, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Honduras, India, Ireland, Italy, Lebanon, Mexico, Middle East, Peru, Philippines, Poland, Russia, Slovenia, United States, Venezuela, and Vietnam. A supervised children's area north of the church provides games and prizes. A raffle will take place on the event day for several prizes: a flat screen television, Ipad Mini, and gift cards.

Sacred Heart Church

The original cornerstone to the church was laid September 23, 1882, when a petition for a new parish was granted by the Diocese of Kansas City. The first Mass was celebrated on November 5th, 1882, at the Carr residence. Exactly one year later, a tornado destroyed the new church building and the church was rebuilt and renamed. The church was designated a local historic site by the Landmark Board in 1976. Sacred Heart Catholic Church has developed into the "Welcoming" parish for new immigrants for the city of Springfield and surrounding area. Located in the historic Midtown neighborhood by Drury University, Sacred Heart prides itself on being the oldest parish in Springfield. Sacred Heart's other signature event is the Craft Vendor Fair held each December in conjunction with the annual Midtown Victorian Christmas Homes Tour. The parish and Welcoming Center was added in 2005.

Sponsorships and silent auctions items are now being solicited for the event in order to continue to make this special occasion a success. Both are fully tax deductible and your business will be provided with all documentation for tax purposes. We hope you will consider being a part of Festival of the Nations. Your generosity is truly appreciated.
